

The Restaurant Members Club makes top restaurants in the south more affordable

R M C Marketing Limited is a leisure and hospitality marketing organisation for restaurants and hotels. The restaurant members club, a part of the company is an exclusive membership dining scheme where members receive unlimited free meals (all courses) when dining for lunches and dinners at participating venues across the south. There are significant additional benefits that come with the membership.

Club Director, Roger Mallock explains, "the restaurant members club is a unique money saving dining facility which will certainly benefit corporate and private diners this summer. As members can dine as often as they wish the dining out experience becomes more affordable which will help people enjoy their lifestyle and culinary experiences. The cuisine ranges from traditional Bistro to French, Italian and Continental with a vast choice of venues within the Southampton region. Many restaurant chefs have extensive experience having trained at the highest level and they are very much in tune with the requirements of diners today."

Dining out is very much at the top of the list of enjoyable pastimes and now, whether on business or enjoying leisure time across the south members know that they will never be far away from a delightful dining experience, and additional venues will be added over the coming months.

"It is our intention" says Roger "to offer as wide a choice of venue or cuisine, whether this may be a city centre location or a picturesque rural setting. We look for authentic venues which offer a unique atmosphere of their own. The restaurant members club will become the premier local dining club in the south".

For further information and a list of participant venues visit the website www.restaurantmembersclub.com or call reservations on 0844 249 0541. The restaurant members club. Food for thought.

Administrator of troubled car dealership sells the business and saves jobs

The future of the troubled Citroen dealership, Wyatt of Winchester, has been saved by administrator, Antony Fanshawe of Begbies Traynor, who has just negotiated the sale of the division and secured the jobs of the 17 staff employed there.

Antony Fanshawe is a partner with Southampton-based Begbies Traynor - the company handling the high profile administration of Southampton Football Club. He was called in on 13 May to the family-owned Wyatt Motor Group, a network of Citroën garages with dealerships in Winchester, Poole and Wokingham.

On appointment Antony Fanshawe immediately set about finding a buyer for all or part of the business. Within days a disposal to Freeborn Garages Ltd was secured for Wyatt of Winchester and Wyatt Concorde in Wokingham, saving 30 jobs in total.

Freeborn, which already has Citroen dealerships in Southampton and Godalming has acquired the two divisions to complement its Hampshire and Surrey portfolio.

Antony Fanshawe, Begbies Traynor Group

Says managing director Andrew Jones: "We had already decided at Freeborn to concentrate on Citroen, a brand we have represented for nearly 30 years. When these two dealerships got into difficulties it made sense to rescue them as they are a perfect fit for our business and bring experienced staff and loyal customers with them, both prime assets for any company."

"Wyatt Group customers in Winchester and Wokingham can be assured that the staff they have dealt with in the past will be there in the future to help them and that they now have the backing of a major group to ensure this continues."

Antony Fanshawe commented: "Wyatt Motor Group was a victim of these turbulent and unique economic times and the directors found themselves in an incredibly difficult position. They took a number of very sensible steps over the past few months in a bid to safeguard the Group's longevity and after 18 years in the motor trade, the decision to call it a day was not taken lightly."

"I am extremely pleased to have achieved the sale of the bulk of the business and, importantly, to have been able to save so many jobs."

Leading insolvency lawyer joins Bond Pearce partnership
